BARTLETT'S COMMERCIAL COLLEGE.

Northwest Corner of Fourth and Walnut streets Cincinnati, Ohio.

The object of this Institution the oblest of the kind in the United States is to impair a theorong, knowledge of Double Entry Book Keeping, Commercial Calendations, y.c., as an apted to all the different branches if trade, embracing Basiness Forms and Business Books of every description. No particular system is adhered to as in other Institutions, but all the different methods and forms of keeping Books, or explained in with a manner as to enable those who complete a thorough course to understand and manage, or scientific principles. Business Books of every description, it matters not bow they may have been previously kept. The system of institution is one suggested by long experience in his mess and teaching, and is such as to introduce all the different vibrates of transactions, and the parties to the same, before the switch, in such a manner as to make them appear the same as actual business transactions performed by the student bookself; thereby rendering the instruction eminently practical. Cincinnati, Ohio.

The knowledge that may be acquired at this institution in from 8 to 12 weeks, by proper application, is of more value and practical use, then any other branch of education; and 11.e graduate is better qualified for the post of accountant, than those who acquire their knowledge in business houses; which business men may begin to see and acknowled e.

Instruction is in all cases given individually, enabling students to enter at any time without detriment R. M. BARTLETT, Principal.
